

VHSL REGIONS AND DISTRICTS

Yorktown High School competes as a member of the Virginia High School League (VHSL), the state governing body for interscholastic athletics and activities. Membership in the VHSL allows Yorktown teams to compete for district, region, and state championships. For interscholastic athletic competition, schools are grouped by enrollment. Yorktown competes as a Group AAA school, the VHSL's largest classification with 130 schools. Group AAA is divided into four geographical regions - Eastern, Central, Northern, and Northwest - each consisting of four districts.
