Dyslexia
Helping Families and School Staff to Learn More
With Dr. Kelli Sandman-Hurley

Arlington Public Schools is offering an evening event designed to help individuals understand the types of assessments appropriate for dyslexia, how to interpret results and what is included in an appropriate Individualized Education Program (IEP). Additionally, a description of an appropriate instructional program for students with dyslexia in both general education and special education will be discussed.

Dr. Sandman-Hurley is an author and co-founder of the Dyslexia Training Institute, Past-President of the San Diego Branch of the International Dyslexia Association, and has co-created and produced “Dyslexia for a Day: A Simulation of Dyslexia”.

May 11, 2017
7:30pm to 9:30pm

Drew Community Center (Adjacent to Drew Model Elementary School – Enter Via Door 11)

Registration is required, and space is limited.

Register online at www.apsva.us/prc/events or call 703.228.2135.