REEP ESL Curriculum for Adults

REEP LEVEL DESCRIPTIONS

The REEP level descriptions outline the speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills that learners should exhibit for a particular instructional level at the beginning of the cycle. The goals of these descriptions are to:

- assist in appropriate placement of learners,
- measure a learner's progress in English within an instructional cycle and from one instructional cycle to the next, and
- assist instructors in assessing a learner's readiness to transition from level to level and from one educational agency to another.

You may view the level descriptors in three ways: general descriptions for all levels, descriptors of all skills for a particular level, (e.g. 100, 150, etc); and descriptors of all levels by skill (e.g. speaking, listening, etc.):

1. General Level Descriptions: (see below)
