2017 JURORS

A very special thank you to our jurors for their expertise and time

Leslie Argueta

Looking through the hundreds of works of art submitted, I was astounded by the level of talent among our Arlington County students. It was a privilege to be able to view such a fine group of artists' works, and a real challenge to make such difficult decisions. Thank you for the opportunity to view the incredible art submitted to the Scholastic Arts competition.

Charlene Haskell

The breadth and depth of artistic ability in the works I reviewed was very impressive. I was thrilled to see the result and impact that quality art instruction has on the students of Arlington and that the visual arts remains relevant in our schools. I applaud each and every student--award winner or not--for taking time to explore their creative expression through visual arts. Reviewing such a large number of works was challenging because each piece represented a personal statement that deserved to be "heard". I recall an art teacher at the University of Maryland telling me once "there are no wrong answers in art". And so, I believe that lends us a freedom of expression which was evident in every students' artwork.

The visual arts has been an integral part of my entire life. I encourage every student who participated in this competition to also maintain some form of creativity--whether it be photography, drawing or "even doodling" (for this alone has its own benefit as an outlet) to painting, journaling, etc. I enjoy seeing how art transforms people at every age at The Art League (located in the Torpedo Factory Art Center) where I now work. My artwork has been in several shows here at the League as well as other local galleries. Over many years I've taught private art lessons to students of all ages, and am delighted to know that, perhaps, I've helped to spark a shared love for art.

Jenny Ruley

I have been seriously taking photographs starting in 1995 when my daughter was born. I photographed her growth at first then started producing images for other people of their children. I believe I am strong on capturing people's moments. I have studied photography from various schools in San Diego & Monterey, CA and learned from Master photographers. Influenced by local artists while in Monterey, CA (1997 -2000), I ventured into a series of alternative photographic methods and created my "Fine Art" series of female nudes. From 2000-2003, I lived in Japan, where I did travel and event photographs. Now I live in Mclean, VA, I am strong in Corporate Portraits, Small Video production, and commercial photographic art.
