180-Day Virginia Provisional Driver's License		Virginia Department of Education (VDOE)	VDOE is responsible for approving driver education programs in the commonwealth's public and private schools. Driver education programs in Virginia schools focus on safe driving attitudes, skill development and appropriate responses to hazards. The commonwealth's standards for driver education require extended supervised practice with a licensed parent or guardian to develop precision in the application of skills and processes to effectively manage risks.	http://www.doe.virginia.gov/instruction/driver_education/	Upon successful completion of the driver education and safety course as prescribed by §22.1-205 of the Code of Virginia, compliance with all juvenile licensing provisions, eligible students beginning at age 15 years and 6 months will be issued a 180-day provisional license. The goal of driver education is to transfer traffic safety knowledge and skills into injury prevention behaviors. The classroom and in-car driver education curriculum focuses on safe driving skills to provide students with a detailed understanding of the fundamentals of driving and to foster responsible attitudes and driving behaviors. Assessments are part of both the classroom and in-car instruction.	Driving	Students with provisional driver's licenses will be able to take driving lessons followed by the licensing exam and road test to obtain their driver's licenses. ACCESS for ELLs 2.0	ACCESS	WIDA	ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 is a secure large-scale English language proficiency assessment administered to Kindergarten through 12th grade students who have been identified as English language learners (ELLs). It is given annually in WIDA Consortium member states to monitor students' progress in acquiring academic English. ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 is only available to Consortium member states. ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 is aligned with the WIDA English Language Development Standards and assesses each of the four language domains of Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing.	https://www.wida.us/assessment/access20.aspx	The purpose and use of ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 includes the following: To help students and families understand students' current level of English language proficiency along the developmental continuum. To serve as one of multiple measures used to determine whether students are prepared to exit English language support programs. To generate information that assists in determining whether ELLs have attained the language proficiency needed to participate meaningfully in content area classrooms without program support. To provides teachers with information they can subsequently use to enhance instruction and learning in programs for their English language learners. To provide districts with information that will help them evaluate the effectiveness of their ESL/bilingual programs.	English proficiency	There are six levels: 1-entering, 2-beginning, -developing, 4-expanding, 5-bridging, and 6- reaching. The tasks on the 2016 summative assessment continue to assess the language students need to process or produce in various school contexts. Each assessment item and task will target at least one of the five WIDA ELD Standards:  Social and Instructional Language Language of Language Arts Language of Mathematics Language of Science Language of Social Studies	Once per year	Winter	2.5 hours
ACT	ACT	ACT	The ACT® is a US college admissions test, measuring what students learn in high school to determine their academic readiness for college.	http://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services.html	Assess high school students' general educational development and to determine college admission. ACT College Readiness Benchmarks: If scores are at or above the ACT benchmark scores, a student will likely be ready for first-year college courses.	Five or more times per year	Multiple	3.5 hours
Advanced Placement Exams	AP	College Board	By taking an AP course and scoring successfully on the related AP Exam, students save on college expenses: most colleges and universities nationwide offer college credit, advanced placement, or both, for qualifying AP Exam scores. These credits can allow students to save college tuition, study abroad, or secure a second major. AP can transform what once seemed unattainable into something within reach.	https://www.collegeboard.org/	This guarantees that every certified user has demonstrated the ability to command the full features and functionality of Microsoft Office, preparing them for future academic or workforce opportunities.	Multiple subjects/skills	AP scores are scored on a scale of 1-5. A score of 5, meaning the students is extremely well qualified to receive college credit for that course, is the highest score. A score of 4 means that the student is well qualified, and a score of 3 indicates that the student is qualified.	Once per year	Spring	3 hours
