

World Languages Programs 2018 – 2019

Course Offerings & Diploma Requirements

Elementary School (Grades K-5)

Dual-Language Spanish-English Immersion	Key & Claremont only - Content Instruction in Spanish and English
FLES (Foreign Language in Elementary Schools)	All other elementary schools

Middle School (Grade 6) - Continue studying Spanish or start another language

Spanish Immersion School	Gunston only - Continue dual-language immersion
1 Semester of World Language & 1 Semester of another subject	Jefferson only – Most Jefferson students take a language, which is taught through the year, every other day. Language instruction alternates with PE, Technology or Music instruction.
1 Semester of World Language & 1 Semester of English Reading	Spanish taught at all schools. Other languages taught vary by school (see chart below). Language is taught all year every other day, alternating with Reading. Students must demonstrate that they read English “at level.” Students whose reading is not at level must enroll in a full year of English Reading instead of a world language.
No World Language	All middle schools except Jefferson - Students may opt to take a full year of English Reading in place of a world language. Students at Gunston, Kenmore and Williamsburg may choose to take an Exploratory Wheel elective course with a world language component.

√ Course is taught by an in-class teacher. √+ Course is open only to 8th grade.

○ Course is typically taught online, some with support from a teacher who visits the class 1-2 days per week.

* Open only to students who have demonstrated proficiency in the language by passing an Introduction course at a qualifying level, by successfully completing Transitional Spanish, or by acquiring a qualifying ability in the language by other means.

All courses will be offered; however, if enrollments are too low, a course may be cancelled.

Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities are encouraged to enroll in world language study. There are many cognitive and social benefits of learning a second language. Arlington teachers and schools are prepared to offer support and accommodations to help students to succeed in developing communication skills in another language.
