“Engage with APS” Options for Community Feedback:

- All information related to the committee’s work, including minutes and meeting dates, will be posted online at www.apsva.us/engage.
- There are several helpful features on the “Engage” section of the APS website page:
 - On the right side of the “Engage” pages under “Let us know what you think!” is the email address engage@apsva.us that the community should use to email ideas, suggestions or comments. All emails sent to this email address will be shared with the committee members.
 - The APS phone number where you can leave a messages is 703-228-6310.
 - Under the email address is a link to the “Online Feedback Form.” Choose “Naming Process W-L” from the drop-down list and then use the box to share your comments, feedback or suggestions.
 - Also on this page on the right side under the feedback form is the “Upcoming Meetings” list that links to the Community Engagement Calendar. All meetings are listed on the calendar.

All emails and comments received through any of the above “Engage with APS” options will be shared with all members of the Washington-Lee Renaming Committee.
