

Elementary School Planning

#APSPLANS2021

Program Move Proposal 1:

- Majority of McKinley students move to Reed
- Arlington Traditional moves to McKinley building
- Key Immersion moves to Arlington Traditional building
- Key building becomes a neighborhood school to provide much-needed seats in that area

Program Move Proposal 1

This proposal would:

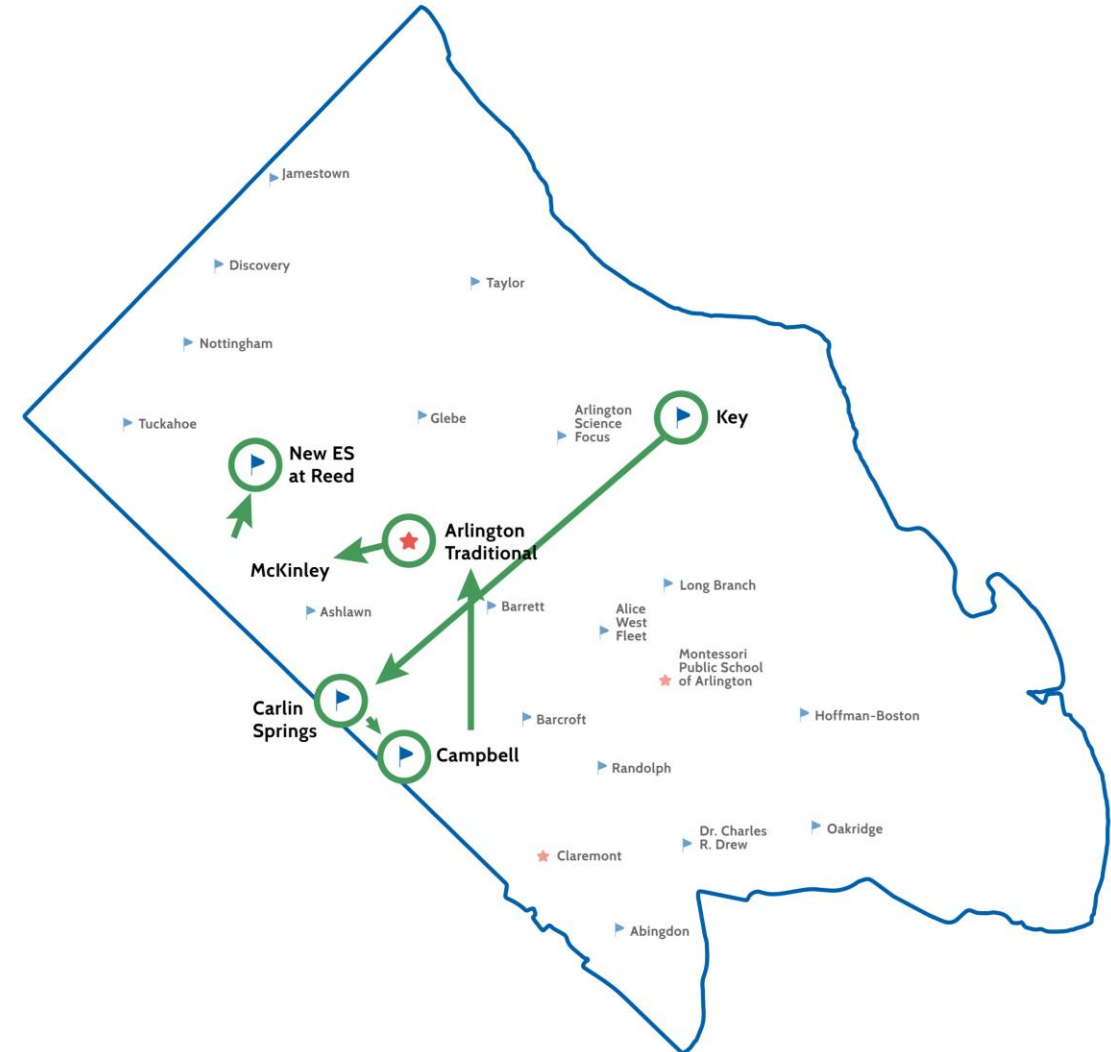

- Keeps more McKinley students together (in addition to 40% of McKinley students who live in Reed walk zone)
- Allows about 100 more students, including siblings, to enroll in ATS from its waitlist
- Places Key Immersion in a central location
- Creates neighborhood seats in high-growth Rosslyn area

If this proposal is adopted, then the following is expected in the 2020 boundary process:

- More than 2,400 or about 23% of all neighborhood elementary school students would be reassigned to another school
- About 18% of elementary neighborhood school students who live in a walk zone would become eligible for a bus
- Two countywide option schools would be moved

Program Move Proposal 2:

- Majority of McKinley students move to Reed
- Arlington Traditional moves to McKinley building
- Campbell Expeditionary Learning moves to the Arlington Traditional building
- Key Immersion moves to Carlin Springs building
- Majority of Carlin Springs students move to Campbell building
- Campbell building becomes a neighborhood school
- Key building becomes a neighborhood school

Program Move Proposal 2

This proposal would:

- Keep more McKinley students together (in addition to 40% of McKinley students who live in Reed walk zone)
- Allows about 100 more students, including siblings, to enroll in ATS from its waitlist
- Moves Campbell Expeditionary Learning to a central location
- Moves Immersion to an area with a high number of Spanish speakers
- Moves the majority of Carlin Springs students to a walkable neighborhood school at Campbell
- Creates neighborhood seats in high-growth Rosslyn area, and
- Allows future capital efforts to focus on Columbia Pike area

If this proposal is adopted, then the following is expected in the 2020 boundary process:

- More than 2,100 or about 20% of all neighborhood elementary school students would be reassigned to another school
- About 13% of elementary neighborhood school students who live in a walk zone would become eligible for a bus
- Three countywide option schools would be moved
