Martin Luther King, Jr. was a leader. Martin Luther King, Jr. was somebody who created peace itself. Peace is important because it lets everyone come together. We need peace everywhere in the world. Whether we are at school, work, home, in public, or anywhere we should have peace. Peace should be quiet but also advocate for. If it wasn't for peace, society would not be what it is today. If King, didn't "let freedom ring" our society would not be the same. The benefits that we got from Dr. King, and peace itself has shaped us to who we are today. There is still a lot more peace that needs to be made, there is never enough peace to go around. That is the mindset that King used to make peace. If it wasn't for peace, the world would be much different and maybe even worse. This is how king and peace have shaped the world we have today.
