Ms. Talento called the meeting to order and announced that the meeting was being held electronically due to the COVID-19 Pandemic emergency.

Mr. Chadwick summarized the May 21, 2020 School Board meeting presentation on the Career Center Expansion Project Concept Design. Ms. Peterson provided funding information on the Interim Superintendent’s Proposed FY 2021 Capital Improvement Plan (CIP), bond referendum capacity, and the impact the Covid-19 pandemic will have on the ten-year CIP.

The Board discussed the need to prioritize projects and identify high school and middle school seats, plans for the Career Center, and the role of the PreK-12 Instructional Program Pathways (IPP) in addressing capacity. In addition, the Board discussed the bond referendum funding for construction projects at length to better understand steps needed to prepare for this and future CIPs and to address enrollment growth.

Furthermore, the Board provided their feedback and shared their priorities with staff on the Interim Superintendent's Proposed FY 2021 CIP.
