

Here are just a few of the wonderful events taking place at our schools

Kenmore

- Black History Month Research Project- Interactive Museum (BH research project focus: Unsung Heroes, Scientists, Inventors, Visionaries, and Trailblazers)
- African American Poetry Reading
- Door Decoration
- Highlight and History of Culinary Arts with Black Local Chef
- African American Art Contest-Integrating Art

Long Branch

- daily slide in the morning news highlighting an influential Black American.
- Bulletin boards curated by the librarian and other classroom teachers

HB Woodlawn

- Feb 3: Black History Jeopardy- Battle of the Grades
- Feb 10: Celebrating Black Films- Movie Day
- Feb 17: The Flashy Flag Girls of Howard University
- Feb 18: Artistic Activism- Spoken Word Poet Joseph Green
- Feb 24 The Finale: "Say it Loud" Black History Month Show

Wakefield

- Afterschool Movie Days
 - 2/1 The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks, 2/8 Drumline, 2/15 Race, 2/22 The Hate You Give
- Town Hall activities during all lunches
 - 2/2 Music, 2/16 Open Mic, 2/23 African Diaspora Fashion Show
- Guest Speaker Series
 - 2/3 Clint Smith, 2/15 Wilma Jones, 2/18 Wakefield's Black Alumni: "College 101" Q&A