

Career and Technical Education

Wakefield High School's DECA students competed in the State Leadership Conference

Wakefield HS students participated in the State Leadership Conference in Virginia Beach, where four students placed. These students will advance to the International Development Conference in Anaheim, CA in the entrepreneurship category.

Jefferson MS students host International Pizza competition

Heather Boda's Family and Consumer Science students hosted the competition, featuring pizza's from Jamaica, Pakistan, El Salvador, Argentina, Dominican Republic and Bolivia.

Barrett ES students learn with Dash Robot!

Fourth grade students at Barrett Elementary were introduced to the fundamentals of coding, including sequences, algorithms, events, loops, functions and conditionals, using the Dash Robot. Students were able to experience hands-on learning while programming their own robot.

ACC Culinary students attend 2024 Real Food For Kids Culinary Challenge

Arlington Career Center Culinary students participated in the lunch and breakfast category at Hayfield Secondary School in Alexandria, VA. Schools from the DMV participated in this fun event!

Rosie Riveters donate STEM Kits to 4th grade APS students

Volunteers for Rosie Riveters helped pack hands-on STEM Kits (solar system wearables and rockets) and donated them to 4th graders in APS Elementary Schools.

Wakefield High School students participate in the TSA Regional Competition

Students from Wakefield HS attended the TSA Regional Competition at Thomas Jefferson School for Science and Technology with their advisor Dr. Tiffany Casey. Students participated in nine competition categories, including Dragster Design and Digital Video Production. Congratulations to Rahma Debiche who placed in the top 10 for Digital Video Production.