

What is FERPA?

The Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA) protects access to student information and records

WHAT is an educational record?

Any information about a student that is kept by the school

WHO can access student information and records?

Parents/guardians or students who are 18+

HOW can records be accessed?

- Parents/guardians or students who are 18+ can request to review and inspect
 - » APS must provide opportunity within 45 days
- Educators with legitimate educational interest can review
- Court and other legal orders

Questions?

- » Ask your child's school
- » Email ferpa@apsva.us
- » Go to studentprivacy.ed.gov/frequently-asked-questions

