

Name: _____

Pretend that every day after school one of your friends makes jokes about what some of the younger students wear and how they look. Sometimes he tries to scare them by hiding and jumping out at them. There is one third-grader your friend really likes to pick on because he always starts screaming and crying. Your friend thinks it's funny, but you recognize what he's doing is bullying.

Describe how you would feel watching a friend bully younger kids after school:

What could you do to help stop your friend from bullying kids after school?

Show the story above and your ideas for how to help stop the bullying to an adult family member. Talk with your adult about other things you could do to help stop bullying.

Write any new ideas you and your adult come up with below:
